

Santa Cruz Secondary Traumatic Stress Interview Questions

1. When faced with a difficult situation at work, how do you address emotions that may come up for you?
2. Can you talk about a time you experienced a challenge at work? What skills did you use to address any emotional impacts of this experience for yourself?
3. As a supervisor, how would you support a social worker who is struggling to find compassion for a family on their case load?
4. What do you think the role of a supervisor is in supporting social workers with the emotional impacts of the work? Can you talk about how you would support your staff?